What the ambition means? Personally, there is the aim, that you need to achieve. For example, I have got ~~an~~ purpose to learn English, and not excepting other languages on the high level. in the nearest future.

I had this goal since my first English lessons and ~~was~~ really enjoyed them! During growing up, I asked myself: "how can I arrange ~~to~~ this goal?"

~~The first~~ At the beginning with, ~~The~~ first step was ~~to~~ the making the plan, which would help me to organize my wish. I sweared myself to work harder. Maybe, even be better than others. That is competition spirit. Moreover, I had to use any opportunity to upgrade my speech skills.

~~Besides, other.~~ However, other school subjects are taking a lot of time and tearing me apart from my ambition. Sometimes

But I'm sure, that is no one who can help me to get my way better, than myself. So, that is self-education works

Write a discursive essay about yourself describing an ambition that you have not yet achieved. When you are writing an essay you must use the following words: to achieve, to arrange, to organize, future, an opportunity. When you are writing an essay do not forget to describe all the points:

- what your ambition is
- when you first had this ambition (or, how long you have had this ambition)
- how you plan to achieve it
- what you have done towards achieving this ambition and explain why you have not achieved it yet
- who can possibly help you with achieving this goal and why/how

Write 110-130 words.
