It seems to me that my teacher was looking exceptionally for a job that requires a good knowing of language. Her knowledge was on a highly level so that is why I think she became the best teacher of English.

I think she is an outstanding teacher because she is really into the language and always keeps discipline at the lessons. She's helped me to know a lot of new difficult words and phrases which I can use now. Our teacher develops our speech and memory by retelling some essays and stories. Also she is immensely attentive.

In my opinion she would be glad to get a touristic journey as a trophy. She would rather see new places than have a money award.
